THE WANDERER.

He knows no home; he only knows
Hunger and cold and pain.
The four winds are his bedfellows;
His sleep is dashed with rain.

'Tis naught to him who fails, who thrives,
He neither hopes nor fears;
Some dim primeval impulse drives
His footsteps down the years.

He could not, if he would, forsake
Lone road and field and tree.
Yet, think! it takes a God to make
E'en such a wail as he.

And once a maiden, asked for bread,
Saw, as she gave her dole,
No friendless vagrant, but, instead,
An indefatigable soul.

JOHN HOWARD PAYNE.

Vags Arrested.

"Weary Willies" are becoming a nuisance in Honolulu, and "vags" is a word which is becoming quite frequent on the police court blotter. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth arrested four of the gentlemen of leisure last evening. Two were white and two were American negroes, who gave their names respectively as William Smith, A. Alexander, William Howard and Clinton Gains. All four protested they were able to procure three square meals a day, and that fact alone should convince the police that they were not without "visible means of support." They were locked up for the night.
